

CashRun GmbH was incorporated in September 2007 to begin its operations in St. Gallen, Switzerland. In November 2008, Cash Run expanded its operations to Asia by incorporating CashRun Pte Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary in Singapore. CashRun's core business is providing fraud protection and global payment solutions services to e-businesses in Europe, North America and Asia.

Web Developer (Full time)

Key responsibilities:

- Analysis, design, development and implementation of web applications
- Provide a seamless integration experience for the merchant or channel partner
- Run test scenarios and QA testing for merchant integrations
- Professional and engaging communication skills with ability to adjust communication to any audience
- Extract new requirements and implement them

Education Requirements:

- Minimum Diploma / Bachelors Degree or Equivalent from a recognized institution (Computer Science or other IT related field)
- Fresh graduates are also welcome to apply.

Technical skills:

- Experience with web based applications, particularly in .NET, PHP and Java technologies
- Knowledge in E-Commerce shopping carts will be an added advantage.
- Experience in network & server infrastructure will be an added advantage.

Personal Skills:

- Possess initiative, proactive and able to work independently
- Possess strong motivational skills
- Excellent command of spoken and written English, and interpersonal skills
- Team player and effective communicator

Send your application with the required info to hr@cashrun.com

- Employment history
- Expected Salary
- Last Drawn Salary
- Years of experience
- Past projects involved